

Christopher Malone

He is a self-taught artist who has been creating one of a kind works of art for about 15 years. His work can be seen in galleries and private collections in the U.S. and abroad.

Born and raised in the Midwest, Chris now lives in the Washington, D.C. area. Chris Malone is a self-taught artist who wants to go beyond seeing dolls as just playthings for children, but as spiritual objects of thought that are in balance with our imagination. How far you take it is up to you.

1995-present: Exhibiting artist at Graham Collection, Washington, DC

2003: American Jazz Museum Featured Artist, "Something for the Soul"

2003-present: Exhibiting artist at Stella Jones Gallery, New Orleans, LA

2004: National Black Fine Art Show, Puck Building, New York, New York

2004-present: Exhibiting artist at Grand-Style Gallery, Baltimore, MD

2005: DC Black Artist, "Hidden Treasures 2002-2003 Erotica Show, Belmont Arts East, Washington, DC

Autumn 2007: Art Doll Quarterly magazine - Doll Artist Profile

2007: Congo Square Rhythms Exhibition and Festival New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Gallery

2008: Black Matter Zenith Gallery Washington, DC 1111 Pennsylvania Ave., NW WDC

2008 Drama Queens May 2008 Zenith Gallery Solo Show, Washington, DC

2008: Figurative Art 2008 calendar

2009: Food Calendar Show at Woolly Mammoth Theatre Company, Washington DC, Through the Zenith Community Arts Foundation

2010 Food Calendar Show at Chevy Chase pavilion, through Zenith Community Arts Foundation

2011 33rd Anniversary Show, Zenith Gallery, Chevy Chase Pavilion, Washington, DC

Years End New Beginnings, Zenith Gallery, Chevy Chase Pavilion, Washington, DC

Zenith Gallery est. 1978

1429 Iris St., NW

Washington DC 20012-1409

202-783-2963

art@zenithgallery.com