We are excited to announce our third year participating at the annual American Fine Craft Show. As the only fine art gallery at this exhibit, we are thrilled to join with this wide-ranging and exquisitely executed fine art and crafts event. Often the line is blurred on what is considered craft and fine art.. Weimar Bauhaus said it best when he proclaimed, “There is no essential difference between the artist and the craftsman.” Whether you consider craft and fine art to be as one or feel they are independent from one another, visit our booth and consider your next purchase from our roster of phenomenal artists “where we like our art well-crafted and our crafts well-arted” ... Margery Goldberg
